

| | |
|--|--|
| To be in writing and accompanied by affidavit of six free-holders, &c. | application shall be in writing, signed by the applicant and accompanied by the affidavit of six free-holders, residents of the voting precinct in which the applicant proposes to do business, all of whom shall declare upon oath that the applicant is a proper person to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors and that the building specified is a suitable place for the business to be carried on. Upon the filing of such application and affidavit the board of county commissioners shall, without the exercise of discretion, grant an order to the sheriff to issue such license, except in territory where the sale of liquors is prohibited by law: Provided, however, that the board of county commissioners, upon satisfactory evidence that such applicant has been convicted or has been found to have confessed his guilt in a court of competent jurisdiction of any violation of the laws of this state or any other state regulating the sale of spirituous liquors, or that the building specified is without the limits of an incorporated town or city, or is within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or the premises pertaining thereto, may refuse to grant an order to the sheriff to issue license to such applicant; that the license authorized within an incorporated town or city under this section shall first be granted by the authorities of such town or city: Provided, further, that the board of county commissioners may, upon complaint made by any resident of the county that any person, company or firm holding a license under this section has violated the laws of this state regulating the sale of spirituous liquors, and upon satisfactory evidence of his or their conviction or such confession of such violation in a court of competent jurisdiction, revoke any license heretofore granted by them. Upon complaint made as aforesaid the board of county commissioners shall forthwith summon such person, company or firm to appear before them at a given time within thirty days to show cause why such license and the order to issue the same should not be revoked: Provided, further, that counties may levy not more than as much tax as the state under the provisions of this section. All persons taking out license to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors under the provisions in this section shall post up in some public part of their place of business the license issued to them, with a revenue stamp attached thereto. The license and stamp shall be printed in such form as the treasurer of the state may prescribe and furnished by the register. Any person failing to post up the license and stamp as provided in this section shall be considered as doing business without license. Any person, company or firm taking out license as provided in this section |
| Commissioners to grant order for license without exercise of discretion. | |
| Exception. | |
| License in incorporated towns, &c., to be first granted by town, &c., authorities. | |
| Revocation of license. Proceeding to revoke license. | |
| Limitation of county tax. | |
| License to be posted. | |
| Form of license, &c. | |
| Penalty for failure to post. | |